Presenter: Vinz Koller with Social Policy Research Associates

Summary: This presentation will describe how sector strategies and a modernized youth apprenticeship approach can help the Mother Lode region connect education and the workplace in ways that eliminates the skills gap and reduces educational debt at the same time. We will cover key elements of building sector strategies, youth apprenticeships, and how both are instrumental in developing career pathways for young and adult job seekers. Workforce board members will have an opportunity to prepare an action plan for the next 12 months that will advance Sector Strategies and Career Pathways across the region.
